Electronic check conversion: Paying by check authorizes WWR to use the information on your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account. Funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as your payment is received. Your original check will be destroyed once processed.

New York State Consumer Disclosures: The Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. 1692 et seq., prohibits debt collectors from engaging in abusive, deceptive, and unfair debt collection efforts, including, but not limited to: a) the use or threat of violence; b) the use of obscene or profane language; and c) repeated phone calls made with the intent to annoy, abuse, or harass. If a creditor or debt collector receives a money judgment against you in court, state and federal laws may prevent the following types of income from being taken to pay the debt: 1) Supplemental security income, (SSI); 2) Social security; 3) Public assistance (welfare); 4) Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support; 5) Unemployment benefits; 6) Disability benefits; 7) Workers' compensation benefits; 8) Public or private pensions; 9) Veterans' benefits; 10) Federal student loans, federal student grants, and federal work study funds; and 11) Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days.
